

JTS ADVISORS PRESENTS:
EXPONENTIAL MARKETING 202
LAZY PIG MARKETING!

Dear friends,

Early on in my business I found myself frustrated because the more business I captured, the less capacity I had to grow. In other words... the more business I got, the less time I had to market myself! I learned that working hard DOESN'T WORK. So in order to solve my own challenges, I learned everything I could about marketing and business development. As a result, I have had the privilege to work with presidents and founders of fortune 500 companies. My Exponential Marketing Technology has helped countless Agents, Loan Officers, and Title Representatives explode their business within months.

In Exponential Marketing 202, Jeffrey will share secrets of other 'Lazy Pigs' so you can have more business with less effort than you ever thought possible!
